Anniversary of Texas Independence.

Special to the Herald.
Austin, Texas, March 2.—The seventy-first anniversary of the Texas Declaration of Independence was observed as a legal holiday throughout the State today. Exercises appropriate to the occasion were held in all the schools and colleges. The Texas Declaration of Independence was framed at Washington-on-the-Brazos by a convention of delegates assembled there March 1, 1836, to plan a provisional government for what was to be the Republic of Texas. On the second day, March 2, the convention and declaration were signed. To the people of Texas this date possesses additional significance, as it is also the anniversary of the birth of General Sam Houston.

Chicago Power Boat Show.

Special to the Herald.
Chicago, March 2.—After weeks of preparation Chicago's second power boat show opens in the Seventh Regiment armory tonight, to continue through next week. In the number and variety of exhibits the show this year easily eclipses last year's exhibition. Practically every important concern in the country is represented. The scores of boats displayed are of all sizes and kinds and there is also an elaborate exhibition of engines and other accessories. The exhibition in a word is a clear demonstration of the great stride made by the motor boat industry during the past year or two.

Ready for Billiard Championship.

Special to the Herald.
New York, March 2.—All arrangements have been completed at the Liederkranz club for the National amateur billiard tournament to begin there Monday. Eight of the foremost amateurs in the country will compete for the championship, the list including Edward W. Gardner, the present holder of the title; Charles F. Conklin and Calvin Demarest of Chicago, Frank J. Drener and Edward Helm of Cleveland, T. Mortimore and S. Rolls of Philadelphia and J. Ferdinand Poggenburg of New York. Nearly all of the prospective contestants have played in many championship tournaments and are well known in billiard circles.

Arbor Day in Arkansas.

Special to the Herald.
Little Rock, Ark., March 2.—Arbor Day was generally observed throughout the State of Arkansas today by the planting of trees and shrubs and by special exercises in the schools.

Dinner to "Tody" Hamilton.

Special to the Herald.
New York, March 2.—The Waldorf-Astoria is to be the scene tonight of what bids fair to be one of the most notable testimonial dinners ever given in the metropolis. The guest of honor will be "Tody" Hamilton, known among his friends as one of the greatest writers of fiction America has ever produced, though his works find no place on library shelves. "Tody" is the press agent of the Barnum & Bailey circus, and he is retiring after twenty-five years of service. His friends in all branches of the amusement world have combined with newspaper men all over the country to give this dinner, at which there will be presented to him a substantial testimonial.

Col. William H. Heuer Retires.

Special to the Herald.
Washington, March 2.—Col. William H. Heuer, of the corps of engineers of the United States army, was placed on the retired list today on account of age. Colonel Heuer is a native of St. Louis, and graduated from West Point in 1865. During his service of more than forty years he was engaged in surveys of the Union and Central Pacific railways and directed various coast defenses and harbor improvements in California, at Key West, New Orleans and other points.
